CLUB "DINAMO-STROITEL" (RUSSIA)

HC "DINAMO" was founded in 1969 as a Russian Army Sport Club (RASC) and renamed as "DINAMO" in 1998. It is the oldest and the most renowned Russian club. The club played in Premier league in the USSR and Russian Championships since its foundation. Six club players and a team coach are members of the Russian National Team. The multiple champion and the prize-winner of Russian fieldhockey Championship and 18 times Indoor Russian champions.

Four players and the coach of the club Leonid Pavlovsky (the bronze medal winner of the Olympic games 1980 in Moscow, the silver medalist of 1981 European Champions Cup, the USSR multiple Champion and prize winner) are the winners of 2008 EuroHockey Indoor Nation Championship as the members of the Russian National Team in Ekaterinburg. The Club's top achievement as of today is the second place (silver medals) of the EuroHockey Indoor Club Champions Cup (Men) 2011 (Lucerne), the bronze medals of 2013 in Lille.